

Please protect Wisconsin's No-Call list. State's Rights should still mean something. I am enjoying the quiet dinners my husband and I now have together. And I do not miss running to the phone to be badgered by a salesperson. Believe it or not, I have never purchased anything from a telemarketer, and I never will, so I greatly appreciate Wisconsin's law. Please do not weaken it with a Federal law.